III. RESPONSE TO REJECTION

Applicants submit that the Office Action has failed to make a prima facie case of obviousness since Ide is not prior art to the present application. Indeed, Ide was filed on June 4, 2004 and claims the benefit of U.S. Serial No. 09/441,233 filed on November 16, 1999. The present application claims the benefit of Japan 11-041114, filed on February 19, 1999; Japan 11-

082228 filed March 25, 1999; and Japan 11-151859 filed on May 31, 1999. Applicants note that Certified English translations were received by the USPTO as indicated in the Office Action of July 28, 2006. Applicants submit that the three Japanese priority applications have a filing date prior to November 16, 1999. Therefore, Ide is not prior art to the present application.

Therefore, Applicants respectfully submit that the pending claims are patentable.
